National Bus Sales and Leasing, Inc. Awarded NJPA National Contract in partnership with the State of Georgia for Public Mass Transit and Transportation Related Vehicles

National Contract #022210-NBS: "Public Mass Transit and Transportation Related Vehicles" has been added to the competitively bid products and services available to National Joint Powers Alliance® (NJPA) Contract Purchasing Members throughout the nation.

Staples, MN – July 1, 2010 – A premiere commercial bus dealer, National Bus Sales and Leasing has been awarded a contract for "Public Mass Transit and Transportation Related Vehicles" by the National Joint Powers Alliance® in partnership with the State of Georgia. The contract was approved on June 28, 2010 and is available nationally to NJPA Members. The NJPA contract enables government, education and non-profit agencies a purchasing solution that satisfies most agencies' competitive bid requirements.

National Bus Sales and Leasing is considered to be the premiere largest commercial bus dealers in the United States. They specialize in transportation options from small transit operators to large fleet purchases. National Bus Sales and Leasing service infrastructure is second to none. National stocks over $1,000,000 worth of parts and has over 20 dedicated parts employees, representing every commercial body and chassis manufacturer. No matter what type of bus transportation you require, you can feel confident that National Bus Sales and Leasing has the most experienced staff and the best choice of equipment to meet your needs. This contract will give customers the ability to purchase light duty transit vehicles from 13-25 passengers, low floor vehicles from 13-30 passengers and front/rear engine trolleys. The contract also allows for a range of ADA options as well as gas, diesel, CNG and Hybrid electric powertrains.

"National Bus Sales is proud to be a partner with NJPA. This contract gives National the ability to offer a full range of products to the end user in a very easy to use format and at a competitive price" - John Smith- Chairman, National Bus Sales

About National Bus Sales and Leasing, Inc.

National Bus Sales & Leasing, Inc. was established in 1974 with a mission to distribute and service specialized transportation equipment primarily in Atlanta, Georgia. The corporate office of the company is now located in a state-of-the-art facility in Marietta, Georgia. National has 4 other regional offices in Texas, North Carolina, Mississippi, Virginia and employees more than 100 dedicated sales, technicians, and support staff to accommodate the needs of our customers. Yet in more than 30 years, the original philosophy of the Company has not changed: It does not matter if you're a small church or a large transit agency, National's mission remains steadfast . . . to treat people the way they would wish to be treated and to exceed their expectations. National sincerely appreciates the opportunity to serve your transportation needs. For additional information visit www.nationalbussales.com or call (800) 282-7981.
